Dear Parents/Carers

Re: Art Week – Drawing Competition.

Inspired by the story 'The First Drawing' as seen in the classrooms during Art week (19-21 Oct 2026), I'm challenging all the children to draw their own WOOLLY MAMMOTH for a competition and the chance to win an art related prize.

There are no restrictions on how a child should draw their mammoth, other than it should not be larger than A4 size. They can use whatever drawing materials they prefer and whatever style they choose (cave-painting, pop-art, anime, realism). A selection of entries will be displayed in school as part of a "Mammoth Gallery" and prize-winners will be chosen by Mrs Ezzine and Mrs Chomiak, our Art Subject-Leaders.

This competition is open to all the children and can be entered either by sending the original artwork into school on Monday 2nd November or by sending a photograph of the artwork to competition@mildmayprimary.org by 9.00am on the same date (Please include your child's name and class in the email 'Subject' line).

We hope that lots of the children choose to enter this competition and get creative over the half-term break.

Kind regards,

Dominic Mulholland
Headteacher
